Biography

I was born Dennis Miedema in Groningen (a small city in the Netherlands) on October 18th, 1986. I lived a relatively quiet and comfortable life until about 5 years ago, when I went through the most nightmarish period of my life:

- My parents got divorced (and used me to fight out their battles, you know, the usual with divorced couples that have kids)
- I got cheated on by my ex-girlfriend (I found out she slept with another guy only AFTER we broke up)
- My girlfriend after that (ex number 2) turned out to be a gold digger, which resulted in me being in debt for thousands of dollars...
- Unable to pay the rent any longer, I was forced to live on the streets for several weeks until a kind soul took me in so I could get back on my feet
- Meanwhile, I was forced to drop out of college because of my homeless situation and because I had to work to pay that money back

This was when I just KNEW I needed to get the women & dating part of my life handled.

Since my dad is this big IT geek, I was practically born and raised on the internet so the obvious starting point for me were dating sites and social networks like MySpace and Facebook.

That's where I experimented with all of it day in, day out (literally). I can still remember the days where I didn't even go outside and was "studying" this stuff from 9-5 like it was yesterday.

I did that for two years straight... and whenever I wasn't meeting women? I read all the books about dating, genetics, and seduction I could find: Geoffrey Miller's The Mating Mind, Robert Greene's The Art Of Seduction... and many others.

Two years later... I had met and dated many, many beautiful, intelligent, and attractive women: singers, actresses, dancers, models, strippers, teacher, single moms... and everything in between.

Next thing I know? All kinds of guys from the Netherlands, the UK, US, Singapore and more were asking ME for my help. It was when I knew what it would be like to be a celebrity that signs up with Facebook: getting stalked like CRAZY.

My unique "style" of dating advice for men combines my "street smarts" of dating with my book smarts... and with dozens of marketing insights that can be applied to dating even better than to marketing!

Fast forward to present day...

- I have helped 618 guys meet more than 5800 women, get 1900+ phone numbers, and go on over 950 dates
- I've done several interviews with (in my market well-known) dating experts such as Adam Lyons, Carlos Xuma, and Scott McKay.
- I've provided on-air diagnosis of listeners problems with women and dating for dozens and dozens of guys on several occasions
- And I'm just getting started!

My "students" always try to find a dating-related topic I don't know anything about or can't give them advice about... but they fail every single time thanks to my unique knowledge of the dating game...

It's why they call me the Google Of Dating!

Media Interview Questions

To make your job as a show host easier, I've prepared 10 questions that will prompt a great interview and create a truly interesting show segment. You can use one, more, or all of these questions during the show if you'd like.

- 1) You have quite the troubled past but still managed to achieve outrageous success with women. So, what's the best advice you can give all the men out there who still need to get the women and dating part of their lives handled?
- 2) What's the biggest myth about having success with women?
- 3) Some of the biggest problems men have when it comes to women and dating is that they're getting bald, are overweight, wear glasses, and so on and think women won't like them because of it. In short: they're insecure about their looks. But do looks REALLY matter Dennis?
- 4) I know there's this show on VH1, The Pick Up Artist Show, where this guy Mystery challenges several men and women to compete and win during a number of seduction-related tasks. Are you a pick up artist Dennis? Do you agree with pick up artists?
- 5) I've checked out your Win With Women blog and on it you mention somewhere that most dating advice sucks because the people giving advice never explain WHY humor is attractive, why dominant guys are attractive. Can you tell us why then?
- 6) I'm kinda curious now about how you personally would handle one of the most common situations in dating: boy meets girl, girl dumps boy, boy wants her back. What would you do to get her back?
- 7) You know, I would expect a womanizer such as yourself to bring a whole lot of machismo to the table. That you would be cocky, trying to act tough, and never reveal any emotions whatsoever. But actually, you're not like that all. In fact, you shared quite some feminist thoughts on your Win With Women blog. Care to explain that?

8) I've read your bio and in it you mention that a lot of insights from marketing apply to dating as well, in fact, that most work better in the dating game than anywhere else. Why is that?

9) Are women in the Netherlands different than those in the US? Should men pay attention to different types of women are different racial origins? What's your opinion on this one?

10) If you could give 5 quick tips to guys to improve their success with women, what would you tell them?
